

Bottisham Community Primary School

Headteacher: Rachael Johnston

Monday 21st May 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

I am delighted to inform you that our Head Teacher, Mrs Johnston, is going to have a baby! Her maternity leave will begin in October. While she will undoubtedly be missed by us all, I can assure you that the Governing Body will be working with Mrs Prue Rayner, Head of Anglian Learning's Primary Hub, to find a suitable person to ensure that the school continues to provide the excellent education and warm sense of community that is so important to us all, until her return the following summer. Prue will be working with the interim leader to ensure our high standards are maintained and will regularly be in school to provide support for staff.

Other good news is that Debbie Heijne will be resuming her Deputy Head's role in July and we are delighted to be able to welcome her back.

You will have the opportunity to meet Mrs Rayner or myself and fellow governors at some of the school events later this term. In the meantime I am sure you will join with me in wishing Mrs Johnston warm congratulations.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Wormald
Chair of Governors.
