Under data protection law, individuals have the right to be informed about how Slated Row School uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

Who processes your information?

Slated Row School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to the pupils and their families is to be processed. Milton Keynes Local Authority acts as a representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities; and can be contacted on 0300 300 0000 or at LGSS.GDPR@theictservice.org.uk

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Slated Row School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Milton Keynes Council will provide a data protection officer. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure they are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. Slated Row School is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NDP is maintained.
