Dear Parents,

Welcome back, I hope you had an enjoyable break.

We are looking forward to seeing the costumes for World Book Day next Thursday (5th March). It will also be nice to see lots of you reading with your children in their classrooms between 8.50am – 9.30am.

As you know, the coronavirus has been making headlines over the last few weeks. I would like to take this opportunity to reassure you that Bury School are taking sensible precautions and following advice issued by Public Health England (PHE). Please visit the following link for up-to-date advice from the Government:
