We had some excitement yesterday with some lovely little visitors in the morning – a swarm of honey bees arrived and settled on a picnic bench in the playground. A local beekeeper came and removed the swarm at lunchtime so the children were able to go back outside and enjoy the beautiful sunshine.

The Reception children have enjoyed their first full week – they have settled so well and seem to be enjoying their lunches!

We hope to see lots of you later today at the Macmillan Coffee Afternoon. Thank you to those who have donated cakes and offered to help out.

Have a lovely weekend.

Head Teacher
