

A Reader

Mastery characteristics	This means
Mindset  A passion for learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children want to learn in many different contexts</li> </ul>
Be knowledgeable  Good understanding of what makes an effective learner	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will apply their understanding of what makes an effective learner to improve</li> </ul>
Communicate  Can express thoughts about learning using learning language	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Being able to both explain and apply effective learning features</li> </ul>
Be creative  Make links in learning across curriculum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Noticing where there are links in learning ideas and content</li> </ul>
Be skillful  Apply Mindset skills that make an effective learner across the curriculum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Applying taught knowledge and skills when learning something new</li> </ul>
Be curious and connect ideas  Being able to independently self regulate and think about thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children will be curious about the world around them and make connections between their learning and everyday experiences.</li> </ul>

How my subject areas contributes to the development of writing across the school:

- To give children the motivation to have a go, make mistakes, use feedback to improve, set themselves goals
- To give them the understanding that they can grow by putting in effort
- To develop a love of learning and curiosity to help them improve
- To understand that we all feel difficult sometimes when putting new skills in place but they must practice writing skills to grow their brains in this area.