

POWERFUL WORDS

PUTRID, FLABBERGASTED & IDYLIC

smell words

putrid

Circle the synonym (the words that mean the same) and draw a line to the word pair

[PU-trid]
adj. rotten and decayed
Like a very old sandwich

Other forms:
None to worry about

Word pairs
putrid food
putrid smell
putrid meat

Step 1 : Circle the synonyms Step 2 : Draw a line to the word pairs

rotten

stench

food

breath

smell

putrid

water

meat

disgusting

decayed

slime

Circle the synonyms and draw a line to the word pairs.

Step 1 : Circle the synonyms

Step 2 : Draw a line to the word pairs

[FLAB-ber-gast-ed]

adj. shocked of amazed

Like how you would feel if you won the lottery

Other forms

none

Word pairs

flabbergasted reaction

flabbergasted audience

flabbergasted onlooker

reaction

audience

look

shocked

flabbergasted

reader

amazed

onlooker

fans

astonished

surprised words

flabbergasted

idyllic

[i-DILL-ik]

adj. ideal or perfect
like a beautiful place where you can relax in the sun

other meanings
none that you need to worry about

other forms
idyllically (adj.)

Circle the synonyms and draw a line to the word pairs.

location island

village

ideal countryside

setting idyllic beach

childhood spot

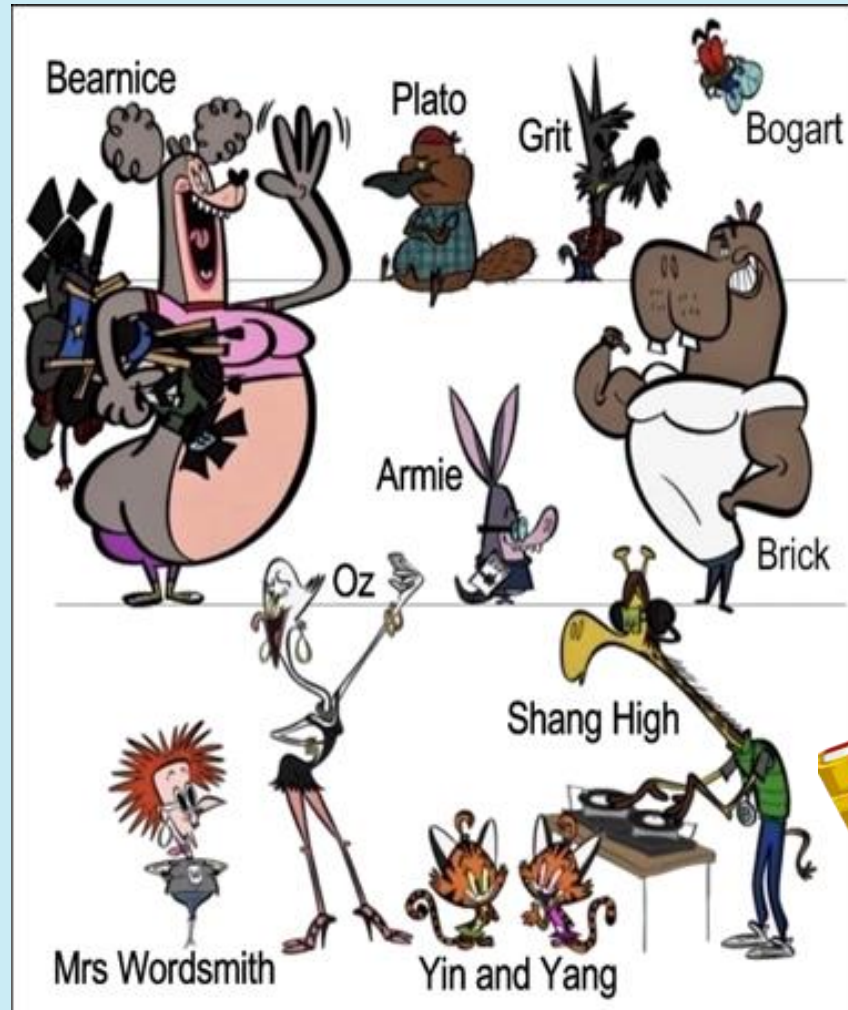

town blissful

scene perfect

TASKS

Task: For each word, write a sentence using your favourite word pair. If you want to challenge yourself, write a short paragraph using all three words.

Extension Task: Research the etymology (where it comes from) for each word.

Are there any other powerful words you could include in your short paragraph?

