

Year 2 English Task – Wednesday 24th June

This week we will celebrate Armed Forces Day on Saturday 27th June. This is a reading activity with information from Armed Forces Day from a previous year.

There are 3 choices of challenge so choose one that you'd like. The answers are also attached so you can check.

Armed Forces Day

This year, Armed Forces Day in the UK is on Saturday 30th June. People celebrate the men and women who serve and have served in the armed forces.

History of the Armed Forces Day

Armed Forces Day began in 2006 as Veterans Day, but was changed in 2009. Gordon Brown wanted to make sure that the service people weren't forgotten.

Did you know?

- The British Armed Forces is made up of the Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines), the British Army and the Royal Air Force.
- Armed Forces Day focuses mainly on celebrating living current and ex-servicemen and women.
- Remembrance Day focuses on those who have died.

Events and Activities

All over the UK, ceremonies and medal presentations are held. There is often a service of thanks, parades and activities like archery, a zip line, climbing and segways. Other areas put on activities such as Red Arrows displays, BBQs, live music, raffles and bouncy castles. People can also buy flags.

Armed Forces Day Questions

1. When is Armed Forces Day this year?

2. When did Armed Forces Day begin?

3. Who wanted to make sure the service people weren't forgotten?

4. Name one of the main British Armed Forces.

5. Which servicemen and women are celebrated on Armed Forces Day?

6. Which servicemen and women are celebrated on Remembrance Day?

7. Name one event that will be held.

8. What else can people buy?

Armed Forces Day Answers

1. When is Armed Forces Day this year?

On Saturday 30th June.

2. When did Armed Forces Day begin?

It began in 2006.

3. Who wanted to make sure the service people weren't forgotten?

Gordon Brown wanted to make sure that they weren't forgotten.

4. Name one of the main British Armed Forces.

Any one answer from:

- The Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines)
- The British Army
- The Royal Air Force.

5. Which servicemen and women are celebrated on Armed Forces Day?

The living current and ex-servicemen and women.

6. Which servicemen and women are celebrated on Remembrance Day?

Those who have died.

7. Name one event that will be held.

Any one answer from:

- There is often a service of thanks, parades and activities like archery, a zip line, climbing and segways.
- Other areas put on activities such as Red Arrows displays, BBQs, live music, raffles and bouncy castles.

8. What else can people buy?

They can buy flags.

Armed Forces Day

The British Armed Forces are made up of the Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines), the British Army and the Royal Air Force. This year, Armed Forces Day in the UK is on Saturday 30th June. It is a time when people show support to the men and women who serve and have served in the armed forces by celebrating them and all they have done.

History of the Armed Forces Day

Veterans Awareness Week was first held in 2005. Armed Forces Day began in 2006 as Veterans Day, but was changed to Armed Forces Day in 2009. Gordon Brown wanted to make sure that armed forces men and women weren't forgotten.

Did you know?

- Armed Forces Day focuses mainly on celebrating living current and ex-servicemen and women whereas Remembrance Day focuses on those who have died.
- It is an official day but not a national holiday.

Events and Activities

All over the UK ceremonies and medal presentations are held in local areas. The official national event is held in Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire. There is often a service of thanks, parades and activities such as archery, a zip line, spider mountain, climbing and baby bouldering walls, a mobile cave experience and segways.

Other areas put on activities such as Red Arrows displays, BBQs, live music, raffles, sponsored events and bouncy castles. People can buy flags to show their support and take part in services and activities in their local areas.

Armed Forces Day Questions

1. Name all three of the main British Armed Forces.

2. When is Armed Forces Day this year?

3. What was the original name for Armed Forces Day?

4. What did Gordon Brown want to do?

5. Is Remembrance Day the same as Armed Forces Day?

6. Where is the official national event held?

7. Name four events that will be held in Cleethorpes.

8. What can people do to show their support?

9. Will you be celebrating Armed Forces Day and how?

Armed Forces Day Answers

1. Name all three of the main British Armed Forces.

The British Armed Forces is made up of the Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines), the British Army and the Royal Air Force.

2. When is Armed Forces Day this year?

This year Armed Forces Day in the UK is on Saturday 30th June.

3. What was the original name for Armed Forces Day?

Armed Forces Day began in 2006 as Veterans' Day.

4. What did Gordon Brown want to do?

Gordon Brown wanted to make sure that armed forces men and women weren't forgotten.

5. Is Remembrance Day the same as Armed Forces Day?

No, Remembrance Day focuses on those who have died.

6. Where is the official national event held?

The official national event is held in Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire.

7. Name four events that will be held in Cleethorpes.

Any four answers from:

- Service of thanks
- Parades and activities such as archery, a zip line, spider mountain, climbing and baby bouldering walls, a mobile cave experience and segways.

8. What can people do to show their support?

People can buy flags to show their support and take part in services and activities in their local areas.

9. Will you be celebrating Armed Forces Day and how?

Pupil's own response.

Armed Forces Day

The British Armed Forces are made up of the Naval Service (Royal Navy and Royal Marines), the British Army and the Royal Air Force. Armed Forces Day is held in the UK every year on the last Saturday in June. This year, it is on Saturday 30th June. It is a time where people show support to the men and women who serve and have served in the armed forces by celebrating them and all they have done.

History of the Armed Forces Day

Veterans Awareness Week was first held in 2005. Armed Forces Day began in 2006 as Veterans Day, but was changed to Armed Forces Day in 2009. Gordon Brown, who then was the Chancellor of the Exchequer, wanted to make sure that armed forces men and women weren't forgotten.

Did you know?

- Armed Forces Day focuses mainly on celebrating living current and ex- servicemen and women whereas Remembrance Day focuses on those who have died.
- It is an official day but not a national holiday.
- During the first celebration day in 2006, there was an event in the Imperial War Museum in London.

Events and Activities

All over the UK ceremonies and medal presentations to celebrate the living service men and women are held in local areas. The official national event is held in Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire. There is often a service of thanks, a parade and family adventure activities including archery, a zip line, spider mountain, climbing and baby bouldering walls, a mobile cave experience and segways. Other areas put on activities such as Red Arrows displays, BBQs, live music, raffles, sponsored events and bouncy castles. People can buy flags to show their support and take part in services and activities in their local areas.

Armed Forces Day Questions

1. When is Armed Forces Day held?

2. Who do we support and how?

3. Which event came before Armed Forces Day began?

4. How did Armed Forces Day originally begin and who wanted to make sure we didn't forget the servicemen and women?

5. How is Remembrance Day different to Armed Forces Day?

6. What is held in Lincolnshire?

7. Name six events that will be held in Cleethorpes.

8. What can people do to show their support?

9. Will you be celebrating Armed Forces Day and how? If no, what would you like to do?

10. How do you think it would feel to be celebrated as an ex-serviceman or woman and why?

Armed Forces Day Answers

1. When is Armed Forces Day held?

Armed Forces Day is held in the UK every year on the last Saturday in June, this year it is on Saturday 30th June.

2. Who do we support and how?

It is a time where people show support to the men and women who serve and have served in the Armed Forces by celebrating them and all they have done.

3. Which event came before Armed Forces Day began?

Veterans Awareness Week was first held in 2005.

4. How did Armed Forces Day originally begin and who wanted to make sure we didn't forget the servicemen and women?

Armed Forces Day began in 2006 as Veterans Day, but was changed to Armed Forces Day in 2009. Gordon Brown, who then was the Chancellor of the Exchequer, wanted to make sure that armed forces men and women weren't forgotten.

5. How is Remembrance Day different to Armed Forces Day?

Armed Forces Day focuses mainly on celebrating living current and ex-servicemen and women, Remembrance Day focuses on those who have died.

6. What is held in Lincolnshire?

The official national event is held in Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire.

7. Name six events that will be held in Cleethorpes.

Any six answers from:

- Service of thanks
- Parades and famil adventure activities such as archery, a zip line, spider mountain, climbing and baby bouldering walls, a mobile cave experience and segways.

8. What can people do to show their support?

People can buy flags to show their support and take part in services and activities in their local areas.

9. Will you be celebrating Armed Forces Day and how? If no, what would you like to do?

Pupil's own response.

10. How do you think it would feel to be celebrated as an ex-serviceman or woman and why?

Pupil's own response.