

A Writer

Mastery characteristics		This means
Mindset	A passion for writing and an appreciation of its educational, cultural and entertainment values	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children will enjoy writing in a range of contexts including cross-curricular opportunities</li> </ul>
Be knowledgeable	Well organized and structured writing which includes a variety of sentence structures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children are familiar with, and use, a range of sentence types and grammatical techniques. Children have an understanding of these technical terms.</li> </ul>
Communicate	A highly developed vocabulary and an excellent knowledge of writing techniques to extend details or descriptions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children will be able to fully explore and execute their ideas successfully.</li> </ul>
Be creative	A vivid imagination which makes readers engage with and enjoy their writing.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Understanding that we write for a reader with a specific audience and with purpose.</li> </ul>
Be skillful	Excellent transcription skills that ensure their writing is well presented and punctuated, spelled correctly and neat.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children have been taught and use these skills excellently and successfully.</li> </ul>
Be curious and connect ideas	The ability to write fluently and with interesting detail on a number of topics throughout the curriculum.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Children can write fluently and apply these skills across the curriculum.</li> </ul>

How my subject areas contributes to the development of writing across the school:

- To ensure application of these skills across the curriculum.
- To give a purpose to writing