

A Reader

Mastery characteristics		This means
Mindset	The motivation to read for both study and pleasure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children want to read and read a variety of texts and genres.
Be knowledgeable	Excellent phonic knowledge and skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children will apply their knowledge from KS1 to read new words.
Communicate	An excellent comprehension of texts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Being able to fully explore a text and all hidden meanings.
Be creative	Knowledge of an extensive and rich vocabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding and using new vocabulary obtained from reading.
Be skillful	Fluency and accuracy in reading across a wide range of contexts throughout the curriculum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Applying taught knowledge and skills when reading new material as well as applying their knowledge of the English language.
Be curious and connect ideas	Extensive knowledge through having read a rich and varied range of texts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reading a range of texts and connecting their ideas across these texts.

How my subject areas contributes to the development of writing across the school:

- To give children a range of vocabulary, ideas and techniques to apply to their writing
- To enable children to decode words to allow them to write successfully
- To develop a love of learning and curiosity about language to apply to their writing