Topic 3 - Wednesday 15th July - PSHE

If you listened to Miss Perry reading 'The Huge Bag of Worries' you may remember the worry monsters that were in the bag. Once these worry monsters were brought out into the light, a lot of them disappeared. Some were other people's worries, some were big worries and some were small.

If you have any worries, perhaps you could draw a worry monster. Then when you have discussed your worry or you are not worried about it anymore, you can crumple it up and throw it in the bin!

There are some example worry monsters below.
