

Aim High... Fly High...

Sheldrakes English - Week Commencing 13th July 2020

This week I would like you to do the activities to show me your neatest and best writing. I know Miss Pugh has set you a task for your transition Teams Meeting on Friday so this will be your most important Literacy challenge for this week.

With all of your writing work, think about using your best handwriting, your capital letters, finger spaces and full stops. Think about using your phonic knowledge to sound out the words you want to write.
