Infant Fayre - Thursday 13th Dec
Wanted small gifts & wrapping paper
As usual we will be holding an infant fair on Thursday 13th December in the morning for KS1 children to buy small gifts for their family.

We are looking for donations for the Fayre eg toiletries, sweets, chocolates, small toys/games, books and other small suitable gift items. Donations of wrapping paper & gift bags are also needed.

A separate letter will go out to Class 1 and 2.

All proceeds will go to EACH, the local children's hospice at Milton.

Class 1 and 2 parents

Class 1 and 2 will be posting a letter to Father Christmas on Friday 23rd November. We need volunteers to walk with us to the post box from 9am to approximately 9.45am. Younger siblings and prams are welcome! Please speak to the class teacher if you are available help.

NOTE: Remember to look in your child's book bag for their sticky label and a letter with more details.

Raffle Tickets

School Lunches - Update

We hope that the children are happy with the new school menus and we are very pleased to let you know that so far no children have had to settle for their second choice of meal. If you have any comments, concerns or suggestions please do let us know. There may be some flexibility to change the menu around.

Menu changes from now...

Week 1 (19/11, 10/12 etc)

Monday - Beef Burger or Pizza

Wednesday – Beef lasagne or Jacket
Potato with Beans and Cheese

Book Shop

The Barrington School Book Club

Will be open on the week commencing 3rd
December – if you have a voucher please save it until then.

Superheroes voting...

Our new superhero to vote for is Ghandi.

Blythswood Trust Christmas Shoe Box appeal.

Thank you for all the shoeboxes sent in already. Please send any in by Wednesday 21st November, they will be collected on the Thursday.

New Build - Changes to Access Next Week

The New Build will be starting on Monday 19th November. A separate letter was sent home earlier this week. Please take time to read it so you are aware of the change in routine for dropping off and picking up at the end of the day.

Whole School Cake Sale Friday 7th December

A letter will go home nearer the time asking for donations of cakes. We are holding a cake sale at morning break to help raise funds for all the extra Christmas activities in school in December eg parties and making decorations.

On sale for 40p at morning play.

Christmas Lunch Friday 14th December Please book your lunch

We will not assume your child will take a lunch that day. PLEASE return the flier or email the school office to confirm if your child is either School meal or Packed lunch. It is important to know exact numbers as the whole school sits down to lunch together and it takes quite a lot of planning. (Children who do have a packed lunch will join in ie they will not eat separately).

Roast Turkey, roast potatoes & vegetables Chocolate cake with cream

Reminder: are your contact details up to date?

Please remember to let the office know if you change address, update your mobile or change jobs.

Co-op Fund – Thank You

We would like to say a special thank you to Annabel Brunner who organised Barrington School to receive proceeds from the Co-op Local Community Fund. It raised a fantastic £2529.52!

Remembrance and Poppies

Thank you for all the support for poppies this year. Also thank you to all the families who came to the remembrance assembly last Friday. There is a display in the foyer. Class 4's Remembrance Poem has been chosen to go in the Headteachers County Newsletter. (Please see additional page of the newsletter).

Last session for Netball Club Wednesday 21st November

Please note the 21st Nov will be the last netball session due to the evenings being too dark.

We will restart on Wednesday 23rd January 2019

Peacock Club – LAST DAY of term
NO afternoon session on Wed 19th December
The morning session will be open as normal.

Remember Us

Anxiously, the horror-struck soldier trudging through the trenches; as men marched asleep. (Tilly & Colby)

Clutched guns, run through gas, crouching across the fields; Fearful we could die any second, missing

our loved ones at home. (Phoebe & Jim)

Loneliness filled their agonised chests, erupting in a puddle of tears.

Begging for the war to end: hope hadn't come. (Lucas & Ernest)

Isolated, the soldier - whose fear choked him with murderous hands - trembled in despair.

His horror-struck face - exchanging glances towards his friends - with a stare. (Annie & Bella)

Terror surged through every nerve in his body, bloodshot, blurry eyes like a nervous rabbit caught in headlights; shaking in horror.
(Oliver & Carmen)

Fear struck their hurting, howling, pounding hearts
as sharp as a knife,

Cutting through their helpless, solemn souls. (Lily & Rory)

Despite their bloodshot eyes,
the men kept fighting for their country, (Molly & Jake)

Brushing tears away with a fluent fist.

With hopefulness, the poppy petals swayed on the battlefields - in the foggy mist. (Maggi & Jack)

Pinched with terror, helping each other over the top;
shivering to gunshots.

Solemnly slumped with hands on knees, (Sonny & Evelyn)

Backs bent. Our lifeless sagging eyes struggling to see.

We clutched our guns with frozen gnawed fingernails, paralysed by a prickle of fear. (Lara & Kingsley)

Terror throttled him with a vanquishing vice grip, he gasped a moan of despair in a horrific tone. (Noah & Jazmin)

Shocked, the soldier's numb fingers fighting against his foe, dying for his country (Layla & Jahkiah)

Face deathly-white and eyes lifeless, he was frozen staring at the bombs ahead, praying for mercy (Tyler & Fletcher)

Paralyzed and horror-struck, petrified and pale his shuddering breath was his final inhale.
(Nicholas & Codie)

*Let us never forget the men and women who sacrificed their yesterday for our tomorrow.
Remember Us. (Tom and Austin)*
