Rapunzel

By Bethan Woollvin

Rapunzel lived all alone in a tall, dark tower. She was trapped there by a witch, who visited every day.

“Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair!” called the witch. And then, using Rapunzel’s hair as a rope, up she climbed, because there was only one way into the tower. Every day, the witch brushed Rapunzel’s hair, swish, swish. Then Snip, Snip she stole some golden locks to sell for riches. As she left with her treasure, the witch cackled,

“You can never escape, Rapunzel! Leave the tower, and I will put a terrible curse on you!”
