

Brent Paediatric Speech and Language Therapy Service

During a time where families are spending more time at home together, please see below a list of examples of apps to continue to develop your child's speech, language and communication skills! Please note that this a small selection of examples and prices of these apps may vary.

Attention and Listening

- Attention and Memo – Free, (Sergey Rozovik), fun motivating game with interactive exercises to develop memory and attention.
- Simon Says – Free, (Flavio Serrazes), classic Simon Says game where you follow the instructions, develop memory and vocabulary.

Language

- Splingo's Language Universe - £2.99 (Education), an interactive game designed by Speech and Language Therapists to develop language skills.
- 28 Categories for Kids – Free (BeeMoo), activities to develop a range of vocabulary including 28 categories!
- iPractice Verbs – £10.99 (Smarty Ears), using different tenses at word and sentence levels.
- Wh Questions – £14.99 (Smarty Ears), answering 'wh' questions.
- WH Questions – Free (Onur Tekin), ask or answer 'wh' questions with different games.
- Autism iHelp – WH questions - Free (John Talavera) "wh" questions using visual prompts designed for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder.
- Toontastic 3D– Free in app purchases (Google LLC), creative learning tool that empowers kids to draw, animate, and share their own cartoons through imaginative play.
- Disney Storytime – Free (Disney), read the story and then ask and answer questions. Encourage the child to retell the story in their own words.
- Sentence Maker - £0.49 (Innovative Investments Limited), interactive game that helps your child to make and complete their own sentences.

Speech

- Articulation Station – Free in app purchases (Little Bee Speech), 'p' sound is free but additional sounds are charged. Helps to develop the sound at the beginning, middle and end of words, sentences and in stories.
- ArtikPix – Free (Expressive Solutions LLC), activities for children with speech sound delays.
- Phonics Studio – £1.99 (Innovative Investments Limited), learn how to pronounce words and expand vocabulary.
- Minimal Pairs - £0.99 (Innovative Investments Limited) helps with speech sound discrimination and production.

Other

- iCommunicate – £48.99 (Grembe Inc), can design visual schedules, storyboards, communication boards, and picture cards to customize them.
- Pictello - £18.99 (AssistiveWare), creates talking photo albums and books.