

Lighthouse Keeper's lunch by Ronda and David Armitage.

Tuesday 8th May 2020 Session 2

Check out the Apostrophe Possession on the LGFL website.

Write out these sentences using the apostrophe correctly.

Example: The book that belonged to Mrs. Driscoll was on the table:

Mrs.Driscoll's book was on the table.

The lunch that belonged to Mr. Grinling was on the wire.

The cakes made by Mrs. Grinling were delicious.

The toy that belonged to Hamish was put in his basket.

The feathers of the seagulls were white and grey.

Draw your own basket and food or cut out the Lighthouse food and picnic basket. This will be good scissor skill practice. Then retell the story to your family or your pet. You could draw and cut out Mr and Mrs Grinling to go with your story.

Write a shopping list for the ingredients you would make for your favourite sandwich.

Make the sandwich with an adult and enjoy your lunch!
