

Monday 11th May 2020 - session 1

Going back to the story last week 'The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch.'
Write a diary extract as if you are one of the seagulls, Bert, Fred or Tom.

Remember to keep in role, write in the past tense and use conjunctions to make your sentences longer.

I'll start you off.

I've had a great few days eating delicious, scrumptious food. Mrs. Grinling keeps trying to trick us seagulls from eating her husband's lunch. On the first day she tied a napkin over the lunch thinking that we wouldn't be able to unfasten the cover. We're smart seagulls it was no trouble to pull it off. She needs to find something better than that to keep us away! On the second day she
