Racism in different situations. What would you do if:

- Don't always think of you or your friend being the victim and someone else being the bully.
- It's important to see it from all different perspectives to know how to tackle it.

Main Task: be aware of my attitudes towards people from different races

Write or discuss what you would do in these situations with someone in your family/home.

- You were being bullied for being racist?
- You knew someone was being racially bullied?
- You heard someone say something racist but you thought it was funny?
- The bully was your friend?
- The bully was being racist to someone you didn't like?
- You said something racist because you were angry or upset?
- You thought it was ok to be racist because other people found it funny?
