Brent Music Service has created an excellent free online resource for children to continue learning music at home. Follow the link above and fill in a few details for access to the resource. Details will only be used by the Brent Music Service to see which schools are accessing the website.

Warming up:

Don't clap this one back. Here is an online version of this listening/rhythm warm up. Teach this warm up to someone at home once you are confident you know how it goes.

Singing:

Here is an upbeat rap song all about being yourself.

Composing a Rap:

Have a go at writing a rap/poem using one of these 3 resources for inspiration.

1. Michael Rosen Rap: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RCkM-IJew3Q>

Write all about what it's like to be you. You can include this pattern:

When I was one, I was having too much fun!

When I was two, I told my brother what to do.

etc.

2. Write a rap that teaches others all about another subject like one of the times tables, the continents, the solar system or the Romans.

Rounding Rap

First you find the place you are rounding to,
Look to the right it will tell you what to do.

If it's 0, 1, 2, 3, or 4,
Leave it the same
as it was before.

If it's 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9,
You add one to it
on the number line.

Write as many zeros
as you need,
You have just done
the rounding off deed!

3. Write a rap about Olly Golly! You can include verses about subjects or clubs you enjoy, friends, playtime, trips or staff.

Example Verse:

Singing in the choir sets my heart free
I can't imagine anywhere else I'd rather be

Than standing tall and singing loud
Together we make such a sound!

Visit the BMS site below for some backing tracks to try rapping along to when you're finished.
