

Design your own poster for The Prince of Egypt.

You will need to include some really persuasive language to make your poster stand out.

Amazing!

Awesome!

Spell-binding!

Heart-stopping!

Use hyphenated descriptive words.

Include some quotes from reviewers and punctuate them properly

“The best musical I have ever seen.” (The Kingsbury Gazette)

Think of a strap line to use under the title

The story of the boy destined to rule.....

A tale of triumph and hope.....

Think about the layout of your poster – you need to arrange the words around your image so that they really stand out. Here is an example:
