

Coopers Court Farmhouse The Common, Stokenchurch Buckinghamshire. HP14 3UA

A rare opportunity to acquire a substantial and elegant period detached farmhouse set on a good size plot conveniently positioned in the village centre overlooking The Common.

Day to day facilities are available within the village including local shops, primary school, junction 5 of the M40 is close by which provides access to London, M25, Oxford and Birmingham. More comprehensive facilities of High Wycombe are approximately six miles distant including the Mainline Railway Station which provides a commuter service to London Marylebone.

The property would make an ideal family home and also has the benefit of a coach house extension with a private entrance which has been used as offices. The property has potential for this to be further annex style accommodation. The property offers many character features including "beams" to most rooms, brick & flint rear elevation, large cellar and attic.

Coopers Court Farmhouse would benefit from some modernisation works but has ample scope. Another fine feature of the property is the substantial plot with wrought iron gates providing access to the side of the property with large driveway providing ample off-road parking plus undercroft parking and to the rear of the garden a double car-port. Vacant Possession available and viewing recommended.
