

Fairchild House, Southampton | Fire safety situation report

Update 7 October 2019

The fire stopping works at the building are now complete, and the works have been signed off, confirming that the building is now fully compliant with fire regulations. We are awaiting further advice from legal counsel as to the course of action against the seller.

The next update will be given on 6 January 2020 unless there is a significant development before then.