

Fairchild House, Southampton | Fire safety situation report

Update 6 January 2020

Further to our previous update, our legal advisers, having reviewed the disclosures made by the vendor at the time of our purchase of the property, are seeking further specialist advice as to the extent of our claim against the vendor.

The next update will be given on 6 April 2020 unless there is a significant development before then.