

Supplemental Material S5. A woman's personal narrative in its entirety (example of a narrative produced by a woman with 12 years of education).

¹⁰*I'm from Highpoint, North Carolina.* ²⁰*My father had a tobacco farm there.* ³⁰*And (he) was working very hard to pay for his land.* ^{4C}His uncle came down to visit. ^{5C}And (his uncle) told him that, "George, you are killing yourself. ^{6C}If I find you a job in Washington, will you come?" ^{7E}So my father decided that was a good thing to happen. ^{8C}And he got him a job at PEPCO. ^{9C}Eventually, me and my mother, my sister and my brothers decided to move to Washington, too. ^{10C2}My sister and I, we would catch the bus down the hill to Nannie Burroughs School, Nannie Burroughs Avenue. ^{11C2}And then we would catch the streetcar to go in town to school. ¹²⁰*My mother was a housewife.* ^{13E}And everyone cared for each other. ^{14E}You don't see whole families like that was back then anymore. ^{15E}And I had a happy upbringing. ^{16CO}So only thing I can say. ^{17CO}I had a good life.