The screenshot shows a user profile for Charity Rowland. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'COMMUNICATION MATRIX', 'Assessment', and 'Community'. Below the tabs is a search bar and a 'Translate this site into:' dropdown menu set to 'English'. The profile header includes the name 'Charity Rowland' and her affiliation 'Oregon Health & Science University'. A list of details follows: 'Portland, OR', 'Screen Name: Charity Rowland', and 'Language:'. A profile picture of a woman with glasses is shown to the right. Below the photo is a bio: 'I am a researcher whose primary interest and passion is in the development of communication skills in people who can't speak, for one reason or another. I developed the Communication Matrix to better describe what these children and adults CAN do (as opposed to what they can't do) to express themselves. I encourage professionals and family members to use this community to share their insights.' At the bottom of the profile, there is a 'View posts by Charity Rowland' link and a blue 'Follow' button.
