

Supplementary material 3: Bottom water and pore water element profiles of undisturbed and disturbed sites. The uppermost values refer to bottom water concentrations measured in the supernatant retrieved above the sediment surface in the MUC liner.

