

Figure S9. Mean CO rates in the 200-kb up- and downstream of structural variants. Linear regressions revealed a significant correlation between variant size and the mean flanking CO rates only for copy number variations ( $p = 0.05$  with an  $R^2$  value of 0.05).