2020 ORCID BOARD ELECTIONS

Board members support ORCID as we mature and scale operations.

- The nominations process has been overseen by the Nominating Committee, chaired by ORCID Board member Alison Mitchell (a.mitchell@nature.com)

- We sought applications that reflect the diversity of the ORCID community and support the Board's strategic oversight role, in particular:

  - Expertise in research policy and management, finance, or risk management (with legal, privacy, identity, and/or security focus)

  - Representation from APAC, Africa, mainland Europe and Latin America

 - Applications from a broad demographic range of candidates

THE 2020 SLATE

The Nominating Committee recommends the following slate:

- Yuko Harayama, Tohoku University, Japan (researcher member)

- Daniel Hook, Digital Science, UK (second term)

- Linda O'Brien, Griffith University, Australia (second term)

- Andrew Preston, Clarivate Analytics, UK

- Katharina Ruckstuhl, Royal Society Te Apārangi, New Zealand

THE ELECTION PROCESS

September 17: Slate approved by ORCID Board

September 23: Slate announced on ORCID website

October 1: Email to voting contacts about slate and election process

October 22: Write-in period for alternative nominations ends

October 23 - November 22: Online voting open

November 22: Virtual members meeting to finalize election and announce results
