

Supplementary material files contain animated videos encapsulating the data from the simulations used to obtain numerically optimal lawn shapes. Each file corresponds to a simulation for a different value of the jump parameter d , which is given in the file name.