Gay Man Beaten in Homophobic Attack

A gay man required stitches after being attacked by two men on Sunday evening.

Mark Hodgson, 48, said he was leaving a friend's house when he heard two men behind him.

After hearing one of the men make a homophobic comment, Mr Hodgson says he was hit in the face, resulting in a broken nose, and after that he can't remember much.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the assault.

The men are described as white, in their 20s and about 5'7" tall.

Despite having strong support from his friends and family since the attack, Mr Hodgson says he has been scared to go out.
