

A BIOGRAPHY ON EDWARD LUDWELL TALIAFERRO

Edward Ludwell Taliaferro was born October 13, in the year of 1905, in Rock Springs, Wyoming. Ed, as he liked to be called always has lived in Wyoming and has made a life for his family and his grandchildren.

He first worked at the First National Bank of Green River and then formed the company of Green River Livestock. This company is a ranching-farming outfit, that runs sheep in Farson, Rock Springs, Green River and Fontinel.

His father Thomas Seddon Taliaferro Jr. was a lawyer and his mother Lucy Ramsey Taliaferro came to Wyoming during the Civil War.

The school which Ed attended was Rock Springs Grade School and was located on B street. Ed lived on B street until moving to Green River to work. The only time Ed was away from home was when he went back east to Episcapol Alexzandrea High School located in irginia. He moved back to Green River after finishing there. Ed has never attended college.

He married at the age of 33 to Elva Angus of Rock Springs. They were married at the Episcapol shurch in Green River. Later on they had Three children. The oldest William Ramsey Taliaferro, the second Thomas Seddon Taliaferro the fifth and the last Susan Taliaferro, which is now Susuan Taliaferro VanMatre.

The two sons are now working for Green River Livestock.

Ed once was the Mayor for Green River and he served for Two terms. He used to be a Democrat and now is Republican, he never told me why he changed too the other political party.

Ed is currently retired from working with Green River Livestock but the company is still running and hopefully from generation to generation will continue too.
