

Submissions

Submissions are now open for the 1st Cine Ambient - Environmental Film Festival 2019.

Submissions for the 1st Cine Ambient - Environmental Film Festival are now open.

Running on May 25th and May 26th 2019, the 1st CAEFF will play host to some very special events and screenings.

CAEFF plays a rich selection of the best of contemporary global short cinema and is always on the lookout for interesting new voices.

Submission deadlines and fees:

Early bird: Until midnight GMT, Wednesday, 20th March – €5

Regular submissions: Until midnight GMT Monday 15th April – €10

Late submissions: Until midnight GMT Wednesday 1st May – €15

There are only the audience prizes only at the Festival. Both are not cash prizes but mentions.

RULES & REGULATIONS

Categories for entry

Entries are invited in the following categories: Short Films, Short Documentaries and Maltese Short Films.

We welcome all forms of film production – animation, experimental, student work, digital work, etc.

Conditions for Entry

Almost all digital formats are eligible for inclusion: preferably MP4 or Pro Res. Films should be presented in their original versions with English language subtitles or commentary where necessary. We are not screening in DCP.

To be eligible for the short film competitions, films must have been completed since 1 July 2015.

Criteria for Maltese Shorts

Filmmakers not from and from Malta and who are based in Malta;

Filmmakers from Malta but based elsewhere; and/or

Films shot by non-Maltesers throughout the archipelago (Malta, Gozo, Comino, Cominotto, Filfla).

Non-English language films

To qualify for selection, all non-English language films must have an English-subtitled screening copy available.

Due to the large amount of submissions received, we will only contact those filmmakers with work selected for the festival.

The selection of films will be announced on the FOE website by 15th May when the programme is launched.

Due to the large amount of submissions received, FOE cannot offer feedback regarding films that are not selected for the Festival.

We do not pay screening fees for films submitted to the festival.

More info on <https://foemalta.org>