* The amount of dividends is indicated in USD per share. If there is an open Buy position on the date of fixing record (Ex-dividend Date), the amount of the amendment is charged to the trading account. If there is a Sell position on the date of fixing record (Ex-dividend Date), the amount of the amendment is debited from the trading account. Full information on the size of dividends and the dates of fixing records is publicly available on thematic websites. The Company is not responsible for the client's untimely tracking of ex-dividend dates for those shares and the CFD on which he is trading.
