Often our behaviour gives us clues about how we are feeling deep down. Sometimes we might act angry when we are actually feeling worried. Use the feeling sorter to enter ‘in’ a behaviour and try to figure out what the ‘underlying’ feeling might be.