

Table Journal Example 1

Table Journal
Each group member should rank the following statements on a scale of 1 to 5, with 1 being the lowest score and 5 being the highest. Rank independently. Then one person should record the results of the group by marking how many members rated each statement with a 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5. Be honest in your assessment!
	1	2	3	4	5
The group arrived and got started immediately without any prompting from the teacher.
The group involved everyone in all aspects of the work, but still divided responsibilities.
Every member of the group participated throughout the work session.
All members were encouraged to voice their opinions.
The group worked through conflicts by discussing options and reaching consensus.
Group members used their time well.
Discuss how you might work even better as a group the next time and record ideas here:          					