

Table Journal Examples 2 and 3

Table Journal

As a group, discuss how you have worked differently as a group today as compared to prior days. What have you learned about working in a group?

Table Journal

This is your last chance to reflect on your work as a group! What was most effective about your group during this problem-based unit?

How might your group have been even more effective?

If you were to give other students advice on working well as a group, what would it be?