

Chapter 14: We Need to Have a Talk About Relationships: Correlation, Simple Regression, Multiple Regression

In Chapter 14 we see how correlation and simple regression work as descriptive statistics—including some simple forecasting. From there we will examine the concept of statistical control by moving from simple correlation, through partial correlation and a semi partial relation to multiple correlation.