

3. How would you explain your approach to vocabulary instruction to parents of your students? Pair up with another member of the class and role-play, presenting your explanation to a parent. Change roles and attempt to make a similar explanation to a teacher who believes only in having students memorize definitions.

4. What are the benefits of reading to students in their home language? Consider the home languages of your students and conduct a search for age-appropriate reading material in those languages. How can you make parents aware of these resources and encourage reading to students in multiple languages?
