

Guiding Questions When Developing or Revising a Discipline Plan

- What do we value and believe about the way people should treat one another?
- What are the rights and responsibilities of everyone in this learning community?
- How do we gather data about the core values of our school community?
- What do we know about facilitating productive behavior?
- How does our behavior affect our students?
- What do students need to behave productively?