Life in Nottingham

Situated in the heart of England, Nottingham is a very popular place to live and study. It is a lively, multicultural and friendly city, big enough to be full of things to do, but small enough for you to feel welcome.

Experience Nottingham

Events

Visit the Old Market Square for local arts and crafts fairs, concerts and ice skating, or to relax on a man-made beach during the summer.

History

Shopping

Explore the Victoria Centre or search for unique items at the smaller stores in Hockley and the Lace Market.

Nightlife

Visit one of England's oldest pubs, the Ye Olde Trip to Jerusalem (1189AD) or experience Nottingham's diverse music scene at the legendary Rock City.

Food

Choose from a variety of interesting restaurants and cafés. Try a traditional English Sunday roast, or exciting foods from around the world.

Sport

Cheer on Nottingham Forest Football Club at the City Ground and enjoy national and international cricket matches at Trent Bridge.

Outside the city

Take a short trip to visit Wollaton Hall: a beautiful country house and museum which featured in the Batman movie The Dark Knight Rises.
