

An introduction to Kaplan International Pathways

Kaplan International Pathways offers incredible opportunities for international students who want to study a degree abroad. With Kaplan, you can follow your path to a leading university, your way.

Through our partnerships with great universities in the UK and USA, you can take a pathway course, often on the university campus, that allows you to:

- meet the entry requirements for a bachelor's or master's degree;
- gain important skills and knowledge for university study;
- adjust to living and studying abroad, and make new friends, before your degree even starts.

Since 2005, we've helped thousands of international students, just like you, follow their life-changing path to university and career success. Join us and follow yours!

Our promise to you

When you study with Kaplan International Pathways, we'll offer you:

- a wide range of degree subjects across nearly 20 UK and US universities;
- a route to university that's right for you, including pathway courses and direct degree admission, at both bachelor's and master's level;
- guaranteed entry to university in many cases, when you pass your pathway course at the required level with good attendance;
- expert teaching for international students, and access to university facilities from day one of your course;
- first-class student support to help you enjoy your time abroad;
- high-quality, specialist student accommodation – your home from home.
