5 CAMPUSES, 1 UCONN
UConn’s picturesque main campus in Storrs truly offers you the best of both worlds: an intimate, small town setting in beautiful New England, and a location halfway between Boston and New York City. The University’s four regional campuses host modern facilities, and together form a vibrant academic community. The Storrs main campus and UConn Stamford have excellent on-campus housing options. UConn Hartford and UConn Avery Point students can live at Storrs.

A LEADER IN RESEARCH
Founded in 1881, UConn is a Tier 1 research university, the highest possible in the U.S. — in fact, only 3% of all universities nationwide are in Tier 1. Its 80+ centers and institutes are awarded $286 million in research awards annually. The University even has an office devoted to helping undergraduate students find and develop opportunities to do independent or collaborative research with professors and other mentors.

A TRUE COLLEGE EXPERIENCE
UConn has more than 32,000 students across all its campuses. Outside your classes, you can meet classmates and make new friends by attending campus events and cheering for the University’s 21 Division I varsity athletic teams, which have won 23 national championships. UConn hosts 700+ student clubs and organizations, including more than 25 international student groups.

Regional campuses:
UConn Avery Point: on the scenic shores of Long Island Sound.
UConn Hartford: an urban campus in the center of the state’s lively capital city.
UConn Stamford: a financial hub, conveniently close to New York City.
UConn Waterbury: a modern setting in a vibrant downtown.

Kaplan International works in partnership with the University of Connecticut to provide application counselling and admissions support to international students.

This brochure has been drafted in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publishing, but changes (for example program content) are likely to occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of the program. It is therefore very important to check the website or contact us for any updates before you apply. Once you have applied, any change which impacts the terms and conditions of your offer or a significant part of your program will be communicated to you.
