BIRMINGHAM: THE CITY
Birmingham is the UK’s “second city”. It’s a diverse place with people from all walks of life and from many cultural backgrounds. This is what makes it such a fascinating study destination: you can find cuisine from around the world, try new things, and broaden your horizons. There are hundreds of parks and open spaces to enjoy, like the Botanical Gardens and beautiful 2,000-acre Sutton Park and nature reserve. Birmingham is also a great sporting city, with outstanding facilities for many different types of sport — the city is even hosting the 2022 Commonwealth Games, and the University will be a venue for several events.

If you want to study a University of Birmingham undergraduate degree, but don’t qualify for entry, a foundation pathway can help you reach the level needed, and you can now apply through Kaplan.

WHAT ARE FOUNDATION PATHWAYS?

The University of Birmingham’s foundation pathways are University-delivered courses, which fully prepare you for your undergraduate degree at the University of Birmingham. Your pathway course will help you to develop your subject knowledge, English language level and academic skills to meet the entry requirements for your chosen degree. If you pass at the required level, you’re guaranteed entry to your University of Birmingham degree.

WHERE WILL I STUDY?

The foundation pathways provide you with a fully integrated experience, which means you will be taught by Birmingham academics and have full access to all the facilities at the University of Birmingham’s beautiful Edgbaston campus. You will be a Birmingham student from day one, taking part in classes across the campus, as well as at the home of the foundation pathways, Priorsfield. You are also guaranteed University accommodation during your foundation pathway, if you apply by the deadline. With most of our accommodation located close to campus, you’ll enjoy easy access to your classes and the rest of the University facilities.

WHICH SUBJECTS ARE AVAILABLE?

There are five tailored pathway options, with modules to suit your degree subject and English language level. You can apply now for courses starting in September 2021 and January 2022, which lead to degree entry in September 2022.
