Get to know Pace University

International students benefit from Pace’s exceptional academic and professional preparation in New York, one of the most iconic cities in the world.

Two unique campus experiences
Choose between two attractive campus locations to study your degree. Pace’s modern New York City Campus is in the heart of the Financial District, near Wall Street as well as the world’s biggest concentration of Fortune 500 companies. A short train ride from Midtown Manhattan takes you to the University’s Westchester Campus. An intimate setting of 3,000 students, it is surrounded by a thriving cultural community and several corporate headquarters.

Brand new facilities
Pace has recently transformed both campuses, with new spaces that have been designed for you to live, learn and collaborate with your classmates. You’ll also benefit from state-of-the-art laboratories, a financial trading room, and media production studios.

A tradition of support
The University offers merit-based scholarships to outstanding students. This tradition of giving dates back to its founders. Following the stock market crash of 1929, Homer Pace, the school’s first president, forfeited his own salary and extended $300,000 of tuition credit (over $1 million in current value) to help students pay for their education.

Career connections
Pace University faculty bring real-world expertise, having worked for a wide range of organizations. They use their in-depth industry knowledge to turn theories into practical examples. Their connections provide you with valuable access to professional opportunities and networks. Learn how Pace prepares you for your career on pages 8–11.

Career preparation at the core of your Pace experience

Pace’s Career Services team is dedicated to preparing you for your professional future, with valuable real-world experiences, networking opportunities and career mentoring.

Get guidance designed for international students

Through Pace’s unique International Student Professional Readiness Education program (INSPIRE), you can complete career training online at any time, to prepare for work experience and job opportunities. Topics range from internship and job search strategies to interview preparation. You’ll also be invited to special career panels, networking events and in-person workshops.

Meet employers

Career Services builds strong relationships with large, mid-size and small companies who want to hire Pace students, and brings over 400 employers to campus every year. In addition to regular employer panel discussions and information sessions, Pace also organizes an annual career fair for international students.

Stand out from the crowd

You can attend workshops that Career Services has developed just for international students. Learn how to write a résumé that not only shows off your impressive skills, but also has the right keywords to help it get past applicant tracking systems. With expertise in your disciplinary area, your career counselor will also work with you one-on-one to develop a personal brand across your résumé, professional introduction and online LinkedIn profile.

We aim to provide excellent customer service to all students at Pace, and will help you prepare for your career and connect you to employers. International students face unique challenges in the US job market, especially in a competitive city like New York, so we have developed several resources to address your specific needs. There are a lot of exciting opportunities for your future, and we’re here to provide you with the best tools for success.

Phyllis Mooney
Executive Director of Career Services

I thought I should list as many things as possible on my résumé, but that’s not the best method. Recruiters don’t have time to read several pages for each applicant. My career advisor at Pace helped me write a much more effective résumé.

Prepare for your future

Pace offers so many opportunities to gain the skills and experience you need to stand out in a competitive job market.

Pace Path
If you study a bachelor’s degree, you and your advisor will design a customized 4-year plan. Called the “Pace Path”, it will outline the academic, extracurricular and career experiences that will help you to achieve your personal and professional goals.

Rehearse for success
While developing your critical thinking skills, your classes will also prepare you for the day-to-day realities of the working world. Most Pace faculty have been professionals as well as academics, and offer industry expertise as well as career connections.

Learn to lead
Gain valuable leadership experience by participating in some of the University’s 100+ student clubs and organizations. The Student Development and Campus Activities office will teach you how to set goals, plan events and organize finances.

Get real-world experience
Participate in one of the highest ranking and largest internship programs in the New York metropolitan area. Last year, 1,000+ companies hired Pace students for internships and other similar work experiences.

Join a dynamic network
Before you graduate, you can benefit from the University’s network of 150,000+ alumni around the world. In addition to regular meetups and professional networking events, you can also join Pace’s Alumni-Student Mentoring Program.

Guaranteed progression to Pace University when you pass your pathway program
You will also earn transferable degree credits during your pathway program, at both bachelor’s and master’s degree levels.

New York experience
Your classes will be taught in the heart of the city’s financial center. Pace is located just minutes from Wall Street, the World Trade Center, Brooklyn Bridge, and lots of restaurants and shops. You’ll also find it easy to explore other neighborhoods using the city’s extensive and affordable public transport network.

Engaging campus life
You’ll be a part of the Pace community as soon as you arrive on campus, with access to everything the University offers. You can use the libraries to study, the computer facilities to do research, and join sports clubs and many types of student organizations to socialize with your classmates.

Quality teaching
We understand that with extra support, you can achieve your very best. Our instructors are experts in international student education and bring great knowledge to their teaching. Small class sizes, one-on-one mentoring and private tutoring will help you to build your confidence and ensure that your academic grades stay on track.

Dedicated support
Your academic program starts with an extended orientation to help you find your way around campus. You will feel fully settled in by the time your classes begin. Together with Pace’s International Students and Scholars office, we can offer expert advice on course options, visas, employment regulations and life in New York.

Support at every step

Start your studies ready to embrace new experiences, knowing that you’ll receive dedicated support from our staff every step of the way.

Simple application process
You don’t need to pay an application fee or get external transcript evaluations when you apply to study at Pace University through International Pathways. Additionally, if you don’t have an official English test score, you can contact us to arrange to take the free KITE exam. This specialized English test is accepted for all of Pace’s pathway programs and degrees.

Expert admission guidance
The US university admissions process can be complex, so we’re here to answer any questions you may have, and to make sure your application best reflects your unique skills and strengths. We also provide free advice on how to apply for your US student visa, and will remind you of important deadlines and actions.

Scholarships
Pace awards renewable, merit-based scholarships of up to 64% of undergraduate tuition and up to 25% of graduate tuition to students entering a degree directly. They are granted automatically based on your GPA in previous studies. Use Pace’s Scholarship Estimator to calculate your likely award. pacemerit.studentaidcalculator.com. Outstanding Global Pathways applicants may qualify for a partial tuition scholarship from Kaplan.

Raise your English proficiency
If you are conditionally admitted to the Global Pathways program, you can complete a course at a Kaplan International Languages (KIL) school in New York or elsewhere in the USA. A KIL certificate will satisfy the English entry requirement for Global Pathways. See kaplaninternational.com/united-states for details.

The list of services that Pathways provides is endless. A bit like a premium customer in a bank is given extra care, each Pathways student is given special attention. This includes answering admissions questions, processing your application, giving pre-arrival information, and orientation week. It is a one-stop solution for students who are looking for a helpful person. As a former international student, I know what it is like to arrive in a new place with lots of questions. The Pathways staff make the process simple for students.

Aakash from India

Assistance after you arrive

From the moment you land in the USA, we are here to help.

Airport pickup
We offer a meet-and-greet service at the airport on popular arrival dates, for a fee. You can rest with a safe and simple transfer directly to your accommodation by private vehicle.

Helping you get settled
In your first week, you will join an orientation program. Enjoy tours around the campus, student facilities and the city. We will show you how to open a bank account and offer tips on US culture. You will also learn more about your program of study and meet your teachers. Orientation is a great way to make friends with other international students.

Comprehensive services
As an international student, you’ll have access to support services to help you make the most of your time at Pace University, including:

- visa information and travel advice
- advice on renting an apartment in New York
- academic counseling
- information about American culture
- career and employment guidance
- tutoring services
- updates on local attractions and events

Optional Practical Training (OPT)
Pace will help you navigate one of the major benefits of studying in the USA: the opportunity to get paid work experience while on your student visa. OPT allows you to work in the USA for 12 months after you graduate. Students in science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM) majors can extend their OPT to 36 months. To find STEM majors, look for the \( \text{STEM} \) symbol on degree lists.

Meet a Pathways teacher

Using their deep knowledge and expertise, our teachers strive to provide Pathways students with the best possible preparation for US university classes.

Martin Molden, Pace’s Global Pathways Program Coordinator, teaches ‘Introduction to the University Community’ to first-semester undergraduate students. Here, he discusses how he supports them in their transition to Pace University.

“I’m thoroughly invested in my students’ success.”

“During ‘Introduction to the University Community’ my students learn about the US education system, start using study and goal-setting skills, and discover the many services available to them at Pace. I also act as their advisor throughout the first year, answering questions and liaising between them and their instructors.

I grew up in Norway and studied in the UK and Hawaii, so I understand how living among different cultures can be both challenging and rewarding. It also helps me to really connect with international students. I find great pleasure in helping them transition successfully into the American education system.

I’m thoroughly invested in my students’ success, and I go to great lengths to ensure that they perform well not only in my class, but in all their classes. I expect my students to work hard and meet deadlines, but I also try to be flexible if they communicate that they are having difficulties.

My door is always open for any student if they have questions, need support, or just want to drop by for a chat.”

Student experience

For many Pace degrees, you can choose to study in either New York City or Westchester. Both campuses offer incredible experiences for international students.

- Learn about the New York City Campus on page 24
- Learn about the Westchester Campus on page 28

Selecting one campus doesn’t mean you can’t experience the other. Many courses are offered in both New York City and Westchester, so you can take classes at either of the locations. You can also elect to change campuses during your degree or after your pathway program.
New York City has it all: fascinating history, iconic culture, food from around the world, and some of the USA’s most famous landmarks.

The world in one city
People in New York speak more than 800 languages, and bring food, art, music and cultural festivals from so many countries. Ranked the 2nd best student city in the USA (QS Best Student Cities 2019), New York attracts first-rate students and scholars.

Capital of culture
If you love arts and culture, you’ve come to the right place. New York is home to hundreds of museums and art galleries, a world-famous fashion week, an international film festival and more theaters than any other city in the world.

Non-stop city
New York’s safe, extensive and low-cost public transport system is open all day and night, and 13,000 famous yellow taxis are widely available. When you need a break from the daily rush, the city provides over 30,000 acres of public parkland.

Endless sightseeing
New York’s skyline is a favorite backdrop for TV and film, and is home to iconic landmarks including the Empire State Building, the Brooklyn Bridge and the Statue of Liberty.

Westchester Campus

Why choose this campus?

• Experience a traditional American campus in calm and beautiful surroundings
• Study near a rich business and technology scene with access to diverse internships
• Enjoy campus sports and a close-knit student community
• Live less than one hour’s train ride from the center of New York City

Golden Apple

Pace’s campus in Westchester County offers a traditional American-style college community in a beautiful setting. Nearby Pleasantville is home to lush green scenery, a lively arts and theater scene, and many historic sites. Westchester County has the nickname of New York’s “Golden Apple” because of the high number of Fortune 500 companies that operate here, including Mastercard, IBM and more. It also has fast-growing tech and biotech industries.

Get active

A well-rounded education exercises your body and your mind. The Goldstein Fitness Center houses a 2,400 seat arena, a running track, cardio equipment and a 50-meter swimming pool. Recent renovations to the campus include impressive new fields for American football, soccer, lacrosse and baseball. Here you can cheer on Pace’s teams when they compete, or join one of the many on-campus University sports leagues yourself.

Engaging student life

Join in the active student life at Westchester, where you’ll find over 60 student societies including student government, performing arts groups and a range of fun fraternities and sororities. Brand-new residence halls and a new, modern student center give you plenty of opportunities to learn outside of class and make new friends.

Quick guide to US higher education

> Bachelor’s degrees include courses in your chosen “major” and a broad range of other subjects. It is common for students to change major in year 1 or 2.

> Transfer admission is common in the USA: many undergraduate students change university after two years to complete their degree at another institution.

> Master’s degrees are advanced-level study, and are more focused than bachelor’s degrees. Master’s are also known as “graduate” degrees.

> Optional Practical Training (OPT) allows international students with an F-1 visa to stay in the USA and do paid work related to their degree after graduation.

What is a pathway program?

A pathway program lets you start your studies on Pace’s campus, while you improve your English to meet the requirement for full-time degree studies. Undergraduate students can also use a pathway program to meet the academic grade requirement. You will take a combination of university-level English language classes and credit-bearing academic courses. By successfully completing your pathway program, you are guaranteed a place in a full-time degree at the University, with no extra required tests or other qualifiers.

Do I need preparatory English?

If you do not have the required English language level for a pathway program, you can be conditionally accepted and first take a preparatory English course. Courses are offered at a Kaplan International Languages school in New York or elsewhere in the USA.

Can I enter a degree directly?

Yes, if you meet all the academic and English requirements, you don’t need to study a pathway program. We can help you apply for direct admission to selected bachelor’s or master’s degrees.

Can I transfer to Pace?

Yes, if you have already begun your undergraduate education at another college. Existing credits will be evaluated for transfer into a Pace bachelor’s degree. The Global Pathways program also accepts transfer students.

What is Undergraduate Global Pathways?

The Undergraduate Global Pathways program will help you improve your English language, academic grades and study skills, so you can progress to a bachelor’s degree. You also earn credits that will transfer to your Pace degree, and will help you to graduate on time.

What will I study?
The program combines university-level English preparation with specialized academic coursework. The academic courses are credit-bearing and count toward your degree graduation requirements. Successful completion of the program guarantees your progression to a bachelor’s degree at Pace University.

This program might be right for you if you want:
✔ to improve your fluency and confidence in spoken and academic English
✔ to enroll in a degree at Pace but don’t have eligible high school grades
✔ extra time and support in adjusting to American university life
✔ guaranteed progression to a bachelor’s degree on successful completion
✔ to earn academic credits before starting full-time degree study — students completing the 3-semester program with maximum transfer credits will progress into bachelor’s Year 2
✔ to enjoy social activities organized for international students.

Pace’s Global Pathways program helped me to more easily transition to the University and my degree courses. The language classes and support resources that Global Pathways provided were very helpful, and I was able to comfortably make friends. Although I was nervous about taking courses for my major, by the time I finished the program I felt really excited and looked forward to the rest of my degree studies.

*Valid for the 2020–21 academic year. Check online for updates. For visa purposes, students must show the availability of sufficient funds to cover one year of study. Estimated total expense (combined cost of program tuition for two semesters, standard institution fees, health insurance, books and supplies, personal expenses, housing and travel) is $72,700.

†You may require additional English proficiency requirements by submitting an essay of the following:
- Proof of Citizenship and secondary school graduation from Anguilla, Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Barbados, Belize, British Virgin Islands, Grenada, Guyana, Jamaica, Montserrat, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Trinidad and Tobago, Turks and Caicos Islands, United Kingdom.
- Qualifying SAT or IELTS score.
- A grade of B or higher in English A (or equivalent) in high school or previous undergraduate grades.
- AP English exam with a score of 4 or above.
- Qualifying SAT or ACT score.
- Qualifying SAT or ACT score.

‡Students with existing undergraduate credit from another university can apply for transfer admission. Your transcript assessed to determine how many credits can transfer to a Pace degree (either as part of a global pathway or after completing all requirements). A maximum of 30 credits can transfer from your previous institution, with credits from 3-year institutions.

§Check online for updates.

*When a credit range is shown, the program includes some foundation courses that can be waived. Students who have an undergraduate business background may already have foundation course requirements and would therefore need only to complete the lower number of credits. This reduces the degree program can be completed more quickly and therefore minimizes tuition and living costs.

 3-year degree holders from India must have an average grade from an NAAC-accredited institution to be considered for a GMAT waiver.

Once complete, we submit your application to the University for an admission decision. See page 62 for more information on what to do next.

Application checklist
A complete application to Pace includes:

- Online application form completed and signed
- Proof of English language proficiency
- Official transcripts for all high school and post-high school institutions attended, with supporting grade scale, translated into English if necessary
- SAT or GRE score (if required, master’s applicants only)
- SAT or ACT score (optional, bachelor’s applicants only)
- Minimum 500-word personal statement answering:
  - Undergraduate applicants: Why you want to study at Pace, why you chose your major, your future plans, what makes you stand out, etc.
  - Graduate applicants: Why you are applying to your chosen degree, your expectations, outcomes, and goals, your professional/academic experiences and accomplishments related to the degree.
- Reference letters from professor/instructor or employer:
  - Global Pathways program applicants: 1 letter for undergraduates, 1 letter for graduates (except 2 letters for master’s in Dyson School of Arts and Sciences)
  - Degree admission applicants: 2 letters (except 1 letter for master’s in Seidenberg School of CSIS)
- Resume listing work, school history, language, award, certificates, volunteer work, and accomplishments (required for master’s, optional for bachelor’s applicants)
- Passport copy (including visa if you are already working or studying in the USA)
- Recent bank statement or scholarship letter showing no less than the minimum funds required in Pace’s Financial Affidavit form (search “affidavit” at kaplanpathways.com/download)
Admission: next steps

Received an offer from Pace? Congratulations! Learn more about what you’ll need to do before you start classes. We’ll guide you through every step.

1. Admission to Pace
   If your application is successful, you are offered admission to Pace University, either through a pathway program or directly to a degree. If you are admitted to the Global Pathways program and submit a higher English test score before classes begin, your offer may be changed to direct admission or shorter duration preparation.

2. Accept offer within 30 days
   To secure your place at Pace University, pay a deposit (specified in your offer letter) within 30 days of receiving your offer or before any I-20 deadline.

3. Receive I-20
   After we receive the required financial documents from you, a visa eligibility document (Form I-20) is issued.

4. Apply for a visa
   Allow enough time to receive your visa from the US embassy or consulate. Visa appointment and processing wait times vary greatly. Apply up to 120 days before the start date on your I-20. Your representative can help with the visa process. In the case of visa denial, your deposit will be refunded.

5. Pay program tuition
   Once you have your visa, you must pay tuition before enrollment. Payment can be made by bank draft, bank transfer or credit card. If you are enrolling in the Global Pathways program, you can also use Flywire, our convenient online payment system.

6. Get pre-arrival information
   You are sent all the information you need, including your orientation schedule, housing information and the forms you must submit before you arrive. It is important that you read and understand it all.

7. Arrive in the USA
   Enroll in Pace University, then join your new classmates in the orientation program for a full introduction to university life.

8. Begin classes!

We hope to see you at Pace very soon!

This brochure has been drafted in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publishing, but changes (for example to program content) are likely to occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of the program. It is therefore very important to check the website or contact us for any updates before you apply. Once you have applied, any change which impacts the terms and conditions of your offer or a significant part of your program will be communicated to you.
