Follow your path to the University of Bristol, one of the UK’s leading academic institutions. This elite university has been at the forefront of British higher education for over 100 years.

Bristol: the University
The University of Bristol is one of Britain’s traditional research-intensive Russell Group universities. As a Bristol student, you will benefit from research-inspired teaching, world-class facilities and a community of inquisitive minds from across the globe. It is consistently ranked among the country’s best, so you will graduate with a degree that’s widely respected. In fact, the University’s graduates are in high demand, with employers recognising the enormous value of a degree from the University of Bristol.

Bristol: the city
With a large community of students and young people, as well as a range of bars, restaurants, shops and cafes for you to discover, Bristol is a great place to live and study. In 2018, the National Geographic Traveller ranked Bristol number 11 on its ‘Cool List’. Bristol is also one of the most green-conscious cities in the country. It has varied sustainability and environmental initiatives, which helped it become the first UK city to receive the European Green Capital Award in 2015.

To gain entry to an undergraduate degree at the University of Bristol, you can take the University delivered International Foundation Programme on campus, and apply through Kaplan Pathways.

What is the International Foundation Programme?
The International Foundation Programme helps you to prepare for an undergraduate degree at the University of Bristol, by developing your academic and language skills to meet degree entry requirements. If you pass at the required level, you’re guaranteed entry to the University of Bristol. If you have a higher level of English (UKVI IELTS 7.0 overall with at least 6.0 in writing and 5.5 in speaking, listening and reading), you may be eligible for the International Foundation Programme Plus.

Where is it based?
The programme is delivered by the University of Bristol, with many classes taking place at the Centre for Academic Language and Development. The Centre is part of the University, and is used by degree students as well as foundation students, so you’ll experience university life from your first day. You will be taught by expert teachers who understand the challenges international students face, and who will be there to support you on your path to university.

Which subjects are available?
The International Foundation Programme has three tailored pathway options, depending on your degree subject. You can start in September 2020 to progress to university in September 2021.
