

Housing for first-year undergraduates

Welcome to your new home

At ASU, first-year students are guaranteed on-campus housing, where you'll benefit from:

- Nearby access to classes, professors, libraries and tutoring services.
- Nearby access to the fitness complex and dining halls.
- Furnished rooms with Wi-Fi, cable and nearby laundry facilities.
- Common recreation and study areas, and community kitchens.
- 24-hour security, including secured key card access and front desk services.
- Special programs, events and amenities tailored to your major.

Live with your classmates

You will live in a residential college with others in your academic program. From the start of your college experience, you'll have built-in study partners and friends.

Housing is allocated on a first-come, first-served basis on the campus of your major. Confirm your housing with ASU as early as possible to secure a room in your preferred residence.

Price per year*

Tempe and Polytechnic campuses: $5,260–$9,770

Downtown Phoenix campus: $9,440–$10,180

West campus: $6,724

ASU@Lake Havasu: $6,050–$7,120

* Rates are for 2019–20. Students who live in ASU residences must also purchase a meal plan, which range in price from $2,970–$5,510 per year. Lake Havasu meal plans cost $2,010–$2,525 per year.

Residential room types

Room choices vary by residence hall and campus, but may include:

- traditional, shared 2- or 3-person bedrooms with community bathrooms
- 4-person, 2-bedroom suites with shared bathrooms
- 2- and 4-person suites with private bedrooms and private or shared bathrooms

Fact: On average, students who live on campus do better academically and are more likely to graduate than students who live off campus.

Housing for other students

University housing for transfer students, graduate students and students admitted to a pathway or English preparation program is limited on each campus and not guaranteed.

ASU-USA Pathways students can apply to live in one of two West campus residence halls:

Off-campus options

You may decide to live off campus in an apartment in the surrounding communities. The university provides a list of furnished, apartment-style dormitories near each campus, and other resources to help you find your own accommodations.

If you are in Pathways or English preparation, you can also choose to live in a “homestay” with a local host family. This is a great way to practice English and immerse yourself in American culture.

“I lived on campus for four years. I really enjoyed it. First, the convenience — all of your friends are living in the same area as you. And I've made friends by living in the dorms. We study together and go to the dining hall together. I still have friends that I came in contact with freshman year.”
