LIVERPOOL INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE AND KAPLAN INTERNATIONAL ENGLISH ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE KAPLAN JOINT OFFER PROGRAMME

APPLICATION AND OFFER

Students applying for Kaplan the Joint Offer Programme will be required to complete and sign the joint application form and send the completed and signed form to the listed Kaplan contact, together with any required documentation detailed in the joint application form.

If the Student is under 18 years old, their parent or legal guardian should complete and sign the joint application form.

Kaplan reserves the right to accept or reject any application.

If Kaplan accepts the Student's application, the Student will receive an offer contained in an offer letter and an acceptance form.

To accept the offer, the Student must complete and sign the acceptance form and pay the deposit and any fees as detailed in the offer.

On Kaplan's receipt of the completed and signed acceptance form, deposit and fees, a legally binding contract will be formed between the Student and Kaplan, which remains conditional on the Student meeting all conditions in the offer letter and meeting all immigration requirements.

Details of immigration responsibilities can be found on the UK Visas and Immigration website. A Student is responsible for ensuring he or she fully complies with the immigration laws of the United Kingdom when entering the UK for a course of study.

REFUND

In addition to any refund the Student may be eligible for under the Liverpool International College (LIC) Terms and Conditions, the Student may be eligible for a refund of the deposit provided for the LIC programme if the student attends at least 80% of the classes for Kaplan International English and can show proof of failing to meet the required scores on at least three attempts of approved Secure English Language Tests.

Any refund will be at the discretion of Kaplan International English and Liverpool International College, and contingent on the student making a good faith effort to pass the Secure English Language Tests.
