International Guest House (IGH)
Your new home in Boston

Live with other international students in a classic Boston Brownstone building with clean, well-kept rooms. The unique layouts and charming details are similar to those found in the neighborhood’s most expensive homes. In fact, the building was once a very large home for a single family! IGH is a great place to make new friends and enjoy life in central Boston.

Convenient location
Less than a 20 minute walk or subway ride to the University and close to the city center, IGH is near lots of shops, restaurants and cafés. Read more about Back Bay on page 7.

Incredible value
IGH is truly a great value, especially for its prestigious location. The accommodation price also includes many items and services that would be additional costs if renting privately.

Well-equipped
All bedrooms include a comfortable bed, study desk, chair, and closet or dresser for each resident. Some rooms have fully-equipped ensuite kitchens.

Multicultural
In your new home, you will have the chance to meet and make friends with people from all over the world. It is a great opportunity to learn more about different countries, cultures and languages.

Safe and secure
IGH is located in a safe, clean neighborhood that is popular with successful professionals and other students. Feel at ease in your new home with secure access doors and staff available to help solve any problems.

Social spaces
Enjoy common rooms equipped with a range of entertainment facilities — ideal for spending time with your new friends.

Included benefits
All bills (electricity, gas, water and WiFi) are included in the accommodation price so you will not have the added worry of sorting out the bills. See what else is included in your IGH room rate on page 6.

Address: 237 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02116, USA
International Guest House is spacious, but still feels cozy. It’s like you’re living in your own house. Having on-site dining means I don’t have to worry about making breakfast or dinner, and the weekly cleaning service is a real benefit. I feel both comfortable and safe here.”

Breakfast consists of your choice of:
- cereals and oatmeal
- breads
- nut butters and spreads (e.g., butter, almond butter, peanut butter, Nutella, honey)
- hard boiled eggs, cheeses and cold meats (e.g., ham, turkey)
- pastries and seasonal fruits
- orange juice
- chocolate milk and yogurt
- variety of teas and instant coffees

Dinner includes:
- soup of the day (e.g., lentil, minestrone, cream of mushroom)
- selection of salads
- main dish (e.g., fish empanadas, eggplant parmesan, roast beef)
- vegetables
- sweet dessert
- fresh fruit

Local food choices
Whether you want to grab lunch on the go or cook a meal with friends, Back Bay offers a great variety of tasty eats within a short walk of IGH.

Restaurants
Favorites include GRECO (Greek), Wen’s Yunnan Noodle (Chinese) and Santouka (Japanese ramen), as well as national chains such as Shake Shack (burgers), Panera (soups, salads, and sandwiches), and Chipotle (Mexican).

Grocery stores
Regional and national supermarket chains like Star Market and Trader Joe’s are less than 15 minutes from IGH on foot. Back Bay is also easily accessible by public transport to international grocery stores sourcing foods from China, Southeast Asia, Korea, Italy and Eastern Europe.

Eating on campus
Northeastern’s dining facilities offer tasty, nutritious meals that accommodate a variety of diets, including vegetarian, kosher and halal. Options range from sushi to specialty salads to popular fast-food brands. You can choose to purchase a student meal plan for a discounted rate on campus food.

Living in Back Bay, Boston

International Guest House is located in Back Bay, one of Boston’s most prosperous residential neighborhoods. The central location, leafy streets and stylish shopping attract both students and high-level professionals.

Beautiful surroundings
On your route to Northeastern, walk along wide, tree-lined streets inspired by the elegance of Paris urban design. Back Bay is home to some of the best-preserved 19th century architecture in America. Grand historic mansions line Commonwealth Avenue, and Copley Square boasts the regal Boston Public Library and Trinity Church.

Green spaces
Two of Boston’s favorite public parks, Boston Common and the Charles River Esplanade, border Back Bay. You can enjoy them at any time of year, whether you prefer viewing the changing natural scenery or keeping active on the many running paths, sports fields or skating rinks.

Shopping and dining
Explore Back Bay to find a wide range of shops, from trendy fast-fashion to luxury brands. The Prudential Center Mall has all the top international chain stores, while Newbury Street is filled with one-of-a-kind boutiques and chic sidewalk cafés.

Visit these unique neighborhood shops

Bodega
From the street it looks like an ordinary convenience store, but beyond its doors you’ll find a handpicked selection of over 100 shoe, clothing and accessory brands.

Trident Booksellers and Café
A cozy independent bookstore that hosts engaging talks, movie showings and trivia nights. The café menu includes all-day breakfast and lots of vegetarian food.

Gourmet Boutique
Inspired by their international travels, the owners of this charming sweets shop import a delicious floor-to-ceiling selection of chocolates, candies, coffees and teas.

Back Bay is served by:
- 2 major subway lines
- several bus routes
- express shuttle to Boston Logan International Airport (20 minutes from Copley Square)
- Amtrak train station with routes to cities along the East Coast, including New York
Getting around

Walk
Boston’s compact size makes it an excellent city for walking. Exploring on foot is also the best way to see some of America’s most famous historical sites.

Subways and buses
The city’s subway (known locally as the “T”) and bus systems provide a cheap, convenient way to get around. Back Bay is located near two T lines and multiple local buses. Your transportation CharlieCard can also help you get discounts at more than 75 of the city’s attractions.

Bicycles
Rent a shared bike from any of 210 stations in the Boston area for a low yearly membership fee.

Airport shuttle
Logan Express will take you between the airport and Back Bay for only $3.00 when you show your CharlieCard to the driver.

“It’s easier to meet people and enjoy life in Boston if you live in a student residence. I’ve met a lot of students in my building’s social lounge and in the dining room during meals. Plus, housing in this area can be expensive if rent your own apartment, so IGH is perfect. I don’t have to worry about food, utilities or security; I can just study and make friends.”

Living in Seattle

Surrounded by stunning scenery, untouched nature, and home to some of the world’s most successful companies, Seattle offers international students an outdoors lifestyle.

History
Discover the rich, natural and cultural heritage of the region at the Burke Museum. The Museum of History and Industry showcases Seattle’s strong tradition of innovation.

Nature
The “Emerald City” is surrounded by blue waters, green forests and snow-capped mountains. In Seattle, you’re never far from excellent outdoor recreation and stunning scenery.

Shopping
Head to the artsy Fremont neighborhood for the Sunday flea market featuring more than 200 vendors, or downtown for the multi-level Nordstrom department store. Bargain hunters can visit any of three discount outlet malls surrounding the city.

Nightlife
At night, the neighborhood of Belltown offers a rich selection of cool clubs and trendy cafés. The city’s famous music scene also serves up lots of great live performances.

Food
You’re never at a loss for delicious seafood, including crab, oysters and Pacific salmon — look out for “flying” fish at the famous Pike’s Place Market! For something lighter, sit down for a bowl of Vietnamese pho, or get a coffee at the first ever Starbucks.

Sport
Watch professional sports teams throughout the year, including baseball (Mariners), American football (Seahawks), and soccer (Sounders FC and Reign FC). The city also has several popular non-professional teams for ice hockey, rugby, basketball, roller derby and Ultimate Frisbee.

Outside the city
Hop on a ferry to visit the lush gardens of the Bloedel Reserve on Bainbridge Island or to the San Juan Islands for whale watching. Mount Rainier offers excellent skiing and snowboarding.

Getting around

Walk
Northeastern’s campus in South Lake Union is a short stroll to plenty of shops, restaurants and entertainment.

Rail and buses
Seattle offers affordable transportation with well-connected routes. The South Lake Union Streetcar to Belltown runs in front of Northeastern’s campus. The Link Light Rail will take you to the airport for only $3.

Monorail
Enjoy a quick trip and great views of the city from the elevated monorail, built for the 1962 Seattle World’s Fair.

Bicycles
Seattle’s shared bike program offers a convenient way to get around the city, for a low yearly membership fee. Follow the 27-mile Burke-Gilman Trail through the heart of the city’s University District and along the stunning shores of Lake Washington.

Ferries
Escape the city bustle and enjoy beautiful waterfront views by hopping on a ferry to the charming Bainbridge Island. Kings County Water Taxi will take you between West Seattle and Pier 50 downtown.

Taxis
Metered taxis can be found downtown or at the airport, and ride-shares such as Uber and Lyft can be booked by smartphone app. One-way taxi fare between the airport and downtown Seattle ranges from $40 to $55.
