Follow your path to the University of Brighton, a progressive, modern university in one of Britain’s most exciting, lively cities.

With Kaplan Pathways, you can gain entry to a degree here by taking a pathway course on campus at the University of Brighton International College.
At its heart, the University of Brighton is an inventive institution, with a creative spirit. In fact, the university can trace its roots back to the Brighton School of Art in the 19th Century, which operated in the city’s stunning Royal Pavilion.

The university now offers degrees in subjects as diverse as Engineering, Fashion, Law, Medicine and Sociology. However, this creative, artistic spirit persists, and can be seen in everything from Brighton’s approach to inclusive learning to the topics it focuses its research on.

A big part of the academic culture at the University of Brighton is about unlocking each student’s unique potential. Brighton emphasises the importance of looking at who you are, and not just your grades, to really empower you to do something you love, and succeed at it.

This means that degrees at Brighton are typically quite flexible, and you’ll often be able to choose optional modules, work placements and volunteering opportunities that work to your strengths. The university’s network of employer relationships, state-of-the-art facilities and commitment to preparing you for a career will ensure you have a world of possibilities to look forward to.
WHY CHOOSE THE UNIVERSITY OF BRIGHTON?

1. Study in a green environment at Falmer

YOUR LIFE ON CAMPUS

The University of Brighton has three campuses in the city of Brighton itself, and one in Eastbourne, a town along the coast. Wherever you spend your time studying, you can be assured you’ll have access to superb facilities, and a truly inspiring student lifestyle.

Campus locations

1. City
This campus is right in the heart of Brighton, and will be where Arts and Humanities students spend most of their time. Here you can find fantastic specialist facilities, including the world-class Design Archives. This is a campus where you are encouraged to unleash your creativity!

2. Moulsecoomb
This is the university’s biggest campus, with more than 8,000 students and numerous facilities and amenities. A wide variety of subjects are based here, including Architecture, Business, Computing, Engineering, Life Sciences, Mathematics and Tourism. You’ll have use of a sports hall and multiple cafés and restaurants, as well as quick and easy access to central Brighton thanks to handy transport links.

3. Falmer
Based right on the edge of the beautiful South Downs National Park, the Falmer campus has outstanding modern facilities for students of Nursing, English Literature and Language, and Social Sciences, including new Psychology labs. There are excellent sports facilities too, including a floodlit football pitch, a sports centre and tennis courts. Brighton city centre is only a short bus or train ride away.

4. Eastbourne
The town of Eastbourne is not far from Brighton, but also sits on England’s lovely southern coastline. It’s where you can study Journalism, Physiotherapy and Sports Science. You’ll find a close-knit student community at Eastbourne, as well as a sports hall, swimming pool, dance studio and newsroom.

Brighton and Sussex Medical School
You also have the option of studying a Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery (BM BS) degree at the Brighton and Sussex Medical School, a short walk from the university’s Falmer campus. The school is run jointly by the University of Brighton and the University of Sussex, and has one of the highest student satisfaction scores of all UK medical schools (NSS 2019).

A SOCIETY FOR YOU
At Brighton, there are more than 100 student societies you can join. Being part of a society is a fantastic way to expand your interests, meet like-minded people and do something you love. And, in keeping with Brighton’s experimental spirit, it can be a great way to try something new!

There are available societies for:
• Animation
• Drama
• Feminism
• Games
• Music
• Photography
• Veganism
and many more!
Brighton is Britain’s most famous seaside city, and its long pebble beach, sunny weather and great shopping attract visitors all year round. But perhaps Brighton’s biggest strength is its friendly, inclusive nature: everyone is welcome here, and the city will immediately make you feel right at home.

Brighton isn’t just welcoming, though. It’s a place where people can thrive, which is so important for students and young people. It has a vibrant music and arts scene, being home to England’s largest arts and culture festival, and is one of Britain’s leading centres of creativity and environmentalism. This is in part thanks to its high proportion of students, who make up 14% of the local population!

There’s an abundance of independent stores, boutiques and alternative shops, making Brighton a famously fashionable city. It’s also a beautiful city to look around, with the exotic Royal Pavilion, numerous green spaces and the famous Brighton Palace Pier. The city is surrounded by the stunning South Downs National Park, and London is just a short train journey away.

On the edge of the country, you’ll feel at the centre of everything.
There's always something happening in Brighton, so it's impossible to get bored! It's a safe and friendly city, the perfect place to go out with friends and discover something fun and exciting.

1. Admire the beautiful Indian-style architecture of the 240-year-old Royal Pavilion.
2. Explore independent shops and narrow alleyways in North Laine.
3. Eat traditional British fish and chips by the sea on the pebble beach.
4. Get stuck into some seaside fun on the amusements at Brighton Palace Pier.
5. See a show or concert at the historical Brighton Dome.
6. Enter a fantasy world at the Steampunk Festival in Eastbourne.
7. Take in a bit of culture at one of Brighton's many art galleries.
8. Go hiking in the beautiful countryside of the South Downs National Park.
9. Experience music, theatre, film, art and more at the Brighton Festival in May.
10. Get your adrenaline going with a jet ski ride.

There's always something happening in Brighton, so it's impossible to get bored! It's a safe and friendly city, the perfect place to go out with friends and discover something fun and exciting.

TAKE A PATHWAY COURSE

As an international student, you might need, or benefit from, a pathway course. Sometimes a pathway course is necessary because of differences in national education systems, or to help you improve your academic or language qualifications to the level needed for degree entry. In short, a pathway course will prepare you for university study.

You’ll study the course at the University of Brighton International College, with access to all of the university’s excellent facilities from the moment you start. Our expert staff will help you work to improve your English, academic skills and subject knowledge, while also helping you make the most of living in Brighton.

When you pass your pathway course at the required level, and with good attendance, you are guaranteed entry to your degree! Additional conditions apply for progression to the Medicine BM BS degree at Brighton and Sussex Medical School.
You have a number of study options at the international college, all designed to help you start a degree. While a Foundation Certificate or International Year One will enable you to enrol on an undergraduate degree, a Pre-Master’s will help you enrol on a postgraduate degree.

The right environment

The international college has a great learning culture that reflects the academic culture of the university itself. You will be encouraged to participate and collaborate with your fellow students, and to think critically and creatively about each topic. Studying alongside other ambitious young people from around the world will help foster a great educational environment, and also serves as a wonderful introduction to university-level study in the UK.

A course designed for you

Your pathway course has been developed specifically with international students in mind, and reflects the challenges you might face when transitioning to a different education system. The course will contain modules based on your degree subject and career aspirations, and there will usually be an element of choice in the topics you cover. Importantly, you’ll be able to learn at your own pace, with teaching support tailored to your individual needs.

LEARN YOUR WAY

Good teachers should inspire you to push yourself, and unlock your full potential. That’s exactly the approach taken by the expert teaching staff at the international college; they’ll guide you through interesting classes and topics, and help you feel ready for university.

Lucija Science Tutor

1. The college has a very dynamic atmosphere. The students have so much energy, I really enjoy working with them!

2. I love seeing how proud the students are when they finish a new task. It’s great to see them grow more confident as they achieve success.

3. Brighton has so much to see and do, but it isn’t too big or overwhelming. It’s ideal for students!
Coming to the UK

Our support starts before you’ve even left your home country. We’ll give you expert advice on the visa process, and send you a pre-arrival pack with loads of handy information about the UK. If you’re under 18, we can arrange the legal guardian you’ll need during your studies for your wellbeing.

When you do arrive here, we can meet you at the airport and give you a real welcome to Brighton and the UK! We’ll arrange fun activities and outings during Welcome Week, and also help you register with a doctor and set up a bank account, so that you’re ready for student life in the UK.

Support during your stay

While you’re at the international college, we’ll make sure you have plenty to do with your fellow students. After all, we want you to make the most of living in Brighton! We’ll organise trips, events and activities, giving you the opportunity to truly discover the city and the amazing student lifestyle it offers.

There will always be someone at the college for you to speak to, whether it’s about your studies or something more personal: you’re never alone. And when the time comes, we’ll make sure you’re prepared for the transition to your university degree.

I study Psychology with Criminology at the University of Brighton, and before that I studied a Foundation Certificate at the international college.

I've always wanted to come to Britain, and to study here. Without the college I wouldn't be here because I couldn't take A-levels in my home country. It was a bit scary before I came, this is a different country, these are different people and I'll have to speak another language. The staff give a lot of advice, and every time you feel nervous, there is always someone there. It's not even someone specific, you can really ask anyone. I think I adapted really quickly.

My parents came with me and stayed for the first 20 days, and I think I cried when they left! My father always tries to make me feel independent, because the world can be tough and I need to learn to be self-sufficient. They were amazingly supportive.

Brighton now feels like home. Whenever I go somewhere else, eventually I feel like I want to come back. I've adapted to being here, and I know people here. My family come to visit, so I feel like I am supposed to be here. My favourite place in Brighton is the North Laine. It's just amazing, the food, the people... the city as a whole is so friendly, but I really love North Laine. I like vintage things, and you can find 70s and 80s stuff there.

The tutors and everyone at the college have been so helpful. My course was useful too, especially when it came to referencing in reports. Most students, when they start university, are worried about that because they don't know how to reference properly. I really felt prepared when I started my degree.

This is my path so far.
Applying to study at the University of Brighton International College is easy! Once you’ve chosen a course, just follow these steps and we’ll help you through the application process.

1. SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION FORM
