NORTH YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

Cllr Jeffels

Cllr Jeffels reported that the temporary patching of the potholes will be upgraded to the permanent repair shortly starting at Allerston.

RESOLVED : That the above report be noted.

66/13

Direction Signs

Cllr Peacock reported that most direction signs only state 'Ayton'. It was agreed that the clerk will contact NYCC Highways requesting that 'East' is incorporated on future signage.

RESOLVED : That the above letter be sent.

67/13

Transport Forum

A letter had been received from Andrew Bainbridge (NYCC Transport Planning) advising that due to lack of members the Transport Forum will not be continuing.

RESOLVED : That the above letter be noted.

68/13

SCARBOROUGH BOROUGH COUNCIL

Planning Application

The following planning application was discussed:

13/00685/HS

Proposal: Proposed extension and conversion of garage to living accommodation.

Site Address: 62 Chantry Drive, East Ayton.

Applicant: Mr Floris

RESOLVED : That East Ayton Parish Council objects to the proposal on the grounds of – loss of off road parking which will impact on immediate neighbours and those on Byefield Grove. This area already has problems with the local bus service being unable to negotiate parked cars on the road.

AYTON FC

A letter had been received from Ayton FC regarding the clearing of the gullies at the playing fields. The clerk will contact Ayton FC to ascertain the location of these gullies and bring back the information to a future meeting.

RESOLVED : That the above information be noted.

70/13

VILLAGE MATTERS

The Chairman advised members of a telephone conversation that she and the Clerk had received from a resident who raised the following items:

- Dog Fouling on Long Lane. Members discussed this and although agreed that it is outside the 30mph limit the clerk will ask for advice from SBC.
- Millennium Plaque. Cllr Phillips agreed that she will arrange for the stone, which will hold the plaque, to be placed hopefully in May.
- Kerbing - Carr Lane Triangle – Members agreed that this work will go ahead as previously discussed.

Members agreed that the resident will be advised to put any other issues in writing in order that they can be discussed appropriately at a future meeting.

RESOLVED : That the above information be noted and agreed.

71/13

PUBLIC RIGHTS OF WAY

Cllr Phillips had attended a Scarborough Historical and Archaeological Society meeting and was informed that come 2026 PRow, if not defined on the Ordnance Survey, may be lost. Members looked at all PRow within East Ayton and agreed to ask for the following PRow being listed:

Start - SE9988282700

Finish – TA0015782748

RESOLVED : That the above information be agreed.

72/13
