Prayer Link Letter – March 2010

Weaver, thread and pattern

God, the Holy Trinity whose dance spins in chaotic order so grace our living as one and many that we define ourselves not by how we differ

but by how we blend and weave in the sparkle of your design
So may our lives worship you
weaver, thread and pattern

Amen

- Mon 1st Today we remember the people of Wales as they celebrate the feast day of their patron saint, St David.
- Tues 2nd Lord God, help me to always speak words that are worthy and that bring glory and honour to you. Amen
- Wed 3rd Remember all who attend the mid week worship. Keep them and those who would like to be there in your heart.
- Thurs 4th Be persistent in prayer and keep alert as you pray giving thanks to God.
- Fri 5th You are truly a God of love. Thank you for sending your Son to bring about my salvation too.
- Sat 6th We give thanks for those who organise and those who support our car Boot sales. They provide an important outreach for our church.
- Sun 7th Today as we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion we remember the events surrounding this special meal.
- Mon 8th Lord, one day spent in your fellowship is better than a thousand spent anywhere else.
- Tues 9th Give thanks for the availability of free education to all in this country no matter the age.
- Wed 10th Thank you God, for bright sunny days and thank you for cold rainy ones as well.
- Thurs 11th Lord, as we watch our favourite TV programmes let us give thanks for inventors and those with inquiring minds.
- Fri 12th Almighty God and loving Father, my heart's knowledge that you are in control allows me to be courageous even in dark days.
- Sat 13th Watching or playing sport brings pleasure to many. Give God thanks for healthy minds and bodies and for ways in which to maintain this fitness.
- Sun 14th Today is Mothering Sunday. Find ways to show your mother how much you love her. Children need our support and encouragement - give them your time and love.
- Mon 15th Guide me on your path and keep me strong.
- Tues 16th Thank you Father for the opportunities to meet in fellowship and friendship in groups like our own Tuesday Together.

- Wed 17th We celebrate with those in Ireland as the feast day of St Patrick is today's focus.
- Thurs 18th Do you have a pair of 'Wellies' (wellingtons)? It is wonderful to have precious rain fall to provide us with water - and it is fun splashing through the puddles.
- Fri 19th It's Friday again. Take time to relax and recharge your batteries instead of the mobile phones.
- Sat 20th Let your prayers support Peter, Saboohi and family as they take up a special place in our church family and congregational life.
- Sun 21st As Rev. Eleanor McMahon comes closer to her new life in ministry let her know you are with her as guide and comforter.
- Mon 22nd We pray for all who attend the Little Treasures (Mums and Toddlers) and ask God's blessing on all involved.
- Tues 23rd Lord, may my life be a seedbed of prayer and of friendship. Thank you for our church fellowship.
- Wed 24th Lord, water the world, revive our dryness, soak our soreness, refresh our tiredness, wash our filthiness, bathe our woundedness and immerse us in your love.
- Thurs 25th This is your space - what do you want to ask God.
- Fri 26th Father, we pray for those caught up in unemployment. Each statistic is a person, help us to consider them as such.
- Sat 27th Remember the older people in your locality - if you can take time to chat with them.
- Sun 28th Palm Sunday - Alleluias and palm branches lead us into Holy Week and all it means.
- Mon 29th The first day of Holy Week - pray for shopkeepers and supermarket workers - without them life would be a terrible struggle.
- Tues 30th As the clocks have now gone forward use the extra daylight whenever you can to save energy.
- Wed 31st Give thanks today for the signs of spring around you. We bless those who take time to plant and grow flowers and bushes and trees for our delight.

Living water

We are connected in creation by water which gives us life.

Tides move in our blood,
and on distant shores
our kindred lift their heads in the salt air
and scan the horizon
for a trace of our mark on the earth

Let our marks be gentle
Let us respect the sacredness of water which moves between us as a blessing from the hand of God.
